

Training that leads to stronger LEADERSHIP

Ethos CRS delivers training Australia-wide

The Ethos CRS approach

True leaders are capable of strategic influence and persuasion and are assets to any organisation. But leadership skills don't always come naturally and any born leader knows there is always more to learn.

Professionals who train with Ethos CRS are equipped with the skills and knowledge to manage efficiently, think strategically and relate effectively. They refine their knowledge and skills to be better leaders.

Ethos CRS trains leaders to manage upwards, identify options to improve leadership capabilities and develop the ability to self-motivate, manage reputation and plan careers.

Leadership workshops include:

- Problem solving skills
- Managing workloads
- Enhancing teamwork
- Giving and receiving feedback
- Improving your analytical thinking
- Challenging conversations
- Managing relationships
